Additional information

¹ Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £120,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

² General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £120,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £140,000 and a current account with £30,000, they will only be repaid £120,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Weatherbys Bank also trades under Weatherbys Private Bank, Weatherbys Racing Bank, Weatherbys Business Bank and Ironstone. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £120,000.

The FSCS also protects certain types of deposits above £120,000 held by individuals. They protect certain “temporary high balances” up to £1,400,000 for a period of six months. These are exceptional and short-lived deposits which result from certain major life events. Deposits which qualify as a temporary high balance include:

- a. certain transactions relating to the depositor’s current or prospective main residence or dwelling;
- b. a death, or the depositor’s marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- c. the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be found at www.fscs.org.uk/making-a-claim/claims-process/temporary-high-balances/

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £120,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £120,000.

So, for example, if you have a joint account with your spouse or partner, and no other accounts of your own with that banking institution, you will each receive up to £120,000 under the deposit limit. So the FSCS would protect up to £240,000 of savings in a joint account. This limit also applies per authorised firm. To find out more visit www.fscs.org.uk.

⁴ Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £120,000) within 7 working days, save where specific exceptions apply.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under www.fscs.org.uk
